10 <h1>On Histiaeus</h1>
11 However, according to Herodotus, Histiaeus was unhappy having to stay in 12 Susa, and made plans to return to his position as King of Miletus by 13 instigating a revolt in Ionia. In 499 BC, he shaved the head of his 14 most trusted slave, tattooed a message on his head, and then waited for 15 his hair to grow back. The slave was then sent to Aristagoras, who was 16 instructed to shave the slave's head again and read the message, which 17 told him to revolt against the Persians.
